

RACINE ZONING ORDINANCE

ARTICLE I. SECTION 114-1.

Rules of Construction and Definitions

HOME OCCUPATION means any occupation or profession carried on by a member of the immediate family residing on the premises, in connection with which there is used no sign or display that will indicate from the exterior that the building is being utilized in whole or in part for any purpose other than that of a dwelling; no substantial amount of stock in trade is kept or commodities sold; no person is employed other than a member of the immediate family residing on the premises; no mechanical or electrical equipment is used except such as is permissible for purely domestic or household purposes; and the occupation or profession does not involve dealing directly with consumers on the premises. No accessory building shall be used for such home occupations.
